

TIM ARNOLD

Biography

Tim Arnold is a house DJ and producer from the UK, now based in Chicago. He has spent twenty years DJ'ing across the globe. His sets move through funky house, disco and deep house: grooving basslines, vocals, all built for rooms where everyone is welcome on the dancefloor.

Since returning to the decks in 2024, he has become a fixture of Chicago's queer nightlife — headline sets for MegaWoof Chicago and Furball, a recurring home at Jackhammer, and the Beefbox kickoff during the city's biggest street festival, Market Days. Beefbox Radio, his long-running mix series, now broadcasts on video; Beefbox Records presses the edits.
